The CT Department of Banking has two (2) job opportunities for entry-level positions in the Financial Examiner career series. Please see the detailed descriptions below.

Consumer Credit Division: Job Posting # 77586

The individual in this position will be accountable for mastering the skills necessary to assess the financial condition and the background of financial entities that apply for new licensing or renewal of existing licenses. Such entities conduct business within the state and operate under the supervision of the agency. The individual will review financial statements and data to ensure and confirm that the applicant possesses the required net worth. The candidate will also conduct investigations into the background of applicants to warrant a determination that the applicant possesses the character, integrity, and general fitness to ensure that they will be operated soundly, efficiently and in the public interest. The candidate may also participate in compliance examinations of regulated entities, whether on site or remotely. The successful candidate will effectively communicate the results or findings of such examinations and investigations to higher grade examiners and management.

Financial Institutions Division: Job Posting # 8913

The individual in this position will assist in, and be accountable for mastering the skills for conducting examinations of domestic and international banks. Candidates will review financial and operational documentation, including financial statements and reports, loan files, investments, bank policies, and risk management programs and models to assess financial condition and determine compliance with applicable policies or banking regulations. The position requires close coordination with federal agency peers and team members. Strong oral and written communications are required in order to effectively communicate findings to management, peers and financial entities.

Eligibility Requirement: Candidates must possess a Bachelor's Degree or Master's Degree. Preference will be given to those with education and/or experience in Economics, Accounting, and/or Finance.

Preferred Skills and Ability: Oral and written communication skills; ability to acquire knowledge and skills required for the target classification; ability to understand, evaluate and solve problems by exercising judgment and logic; ability to read, interpret and understand written material; ability to perform basic arithmetical computations; ability to interpret charts, graphs and tables; learning and reasoning ability; ability to establish and maintain cooperative relations with superiors, associates and general public; ability to utilize computer software. Incumbents in this class may be required to travel.

Note:

The filling of this position will be in accordance with reemployment, SEBAC, transfer, promotion and merit employment rules.

Application Instructions:
